The Young Lawyers Division is proud to announce that it is once again holding a Back to School Supply Drive to obtain donations for students in economically challenged areas of the city. Through Friday, Aug. 22, YLD will be collecting backpacks, notebook paper, pens/pencils/highlighters, notebooks, composition books, rulers, dictionaries, folders, binders, pencil cases and anything else that might be useful at designated donation centers across Philadelphia. All supplies will be distributed to local schools and recreation centers in Philadelphia.

Here are several of ways you can contribute to this very worthy cause:

- We are looking for additional drop off locations in different areas of the city. If you agree to host a drop off location, please arrange to have all donations brought to our central location site at 19th and Market Streets on or before Friday, Aug. 22.
- We need drivers to deliver supplies to various local schools and recreation centers.
- Spread the word – via email, fax, phone, flyer – whatever you prefer. We are accepting donations from anyone willing to give!

For more information, please contact Maria Bermudez at 215-587-8400.
