

Al Carlson serving on Board of Directors of the Justinian Society

(Philadelphia) –Martin Law partner, Al Carlson was recently elected to the Board of Directors of the Justinian Society. Mr. Carlson will serve a three-year term on the board, ending in June 2023.

Al Carlson is a partner of Martin Law and practices exclusively in the area of workers' compensation law since 1992. In addition to maintaining an active case load, Mr. Carlson is a frequent guest lecturer at Villanova University School of Law in the area of Pennsylvania workers' compensation. In the spring of 2013, Mr. Carlson was among the first class of attorneys to become a certified specialist in Pennsylvania Workers' Compensation by the PA Bar Association's Section on Workers' Compensation Law as authorized by the PA Supreme Court and has maintained the certification since then. Mr. Carlson served as a Co-Chair in 2008 for the Philadelphia Bar Association's Workers' Compensation Section and served as the legislative liaison. He is currently serving as the secretary for the Philadelphia Trial Lawyers Association.